Washington's note to the British government anent mail detentions and the precious of the committee mittee in the 1912 campaign and orig-inated the idea of soliciting small con-tributions for the campaign. This plan netted the committee more than $100.000. Mr. Steckman's newspaper affiliations date from the time he was less than ten years old, and he has been "in the same" ever since. He swing has proceeded almost too rapidly for safety.

Reading, which led the recent advance on its series of new high records, culminating in the previous days maximum of 110 3-4, was no less conspicuous on the decline, falling to 103 1-8 and closing at 103 1-2, an overnight loss of 5 1-4 points.

Other active rails were lower by one to over two points at irregular intervals, with the exception of Rock Island, which was in marked demand at an extreme gain of 2 1-2 to 21 3-4 been "in the game" ever since. He represented the St. Louis Republic when he first came to the capital in 194. He is now a political writer for the Washington Post and correspondent for the New Orleans Daily States.
